MEETINGS IN THE SEVENTH WARD. -A meeting of citizens of the Seventh Ward was held on Tuesday night last, to make nominations for the ensuing election C. C. Anderson, Esq, was called to the chair, and the following nominations were made:

For Alderman—E. Wheeler; for Common Council—Henry M. Knight, T. H. Barron, G. B. Clarke On Thursday evening a meeting of citizens of the ward was held at Island Hall. Robert H. Graham, Esq., was called to the chair, and the following nominations were

For Alderman—Thomas E. Lloyd; for Com-mon Council—W. T. Walker, George Wright, John G. Dudley. At a previous meeting in the ward the following nominations were made:

For Alderman-Thomas E. Lloyd; for Common Council-George Wright, Otho Boswell, John G. Dudley. MURDEROUS ATTACK .- On Friday night, as

Lieutenant Lovett, of the Veteran Reserve Corps. (one of the witnesses in the conspiracy trials,) was returning to his quarters at Stone Hospital through the grove just this side, four persons sprang out of a hiding place and commenced to fire at him, but fortunately without effect. The guard at the hospital was immediately turned out and the locality scoured unsuccessfully. It is not known whether the attack was made in revenge for the Lieutenant's active participation in the discovery and arrest of the conspirators, or for purposes of robbery.

CLOSED UP.—Saturday night, Serg't Skip-pon, with a squad of the Third Ward police, made a descent upon the ranche on C street, between 9th and 10th, kept by Aun Tracey, alias Wright, and arrested the preprietress and all the inmates. Justice Thompson, before whom the parties were taken, sent the proprietress to jail for court for keeping a bawdy house. Netty Crosbin, Mary V. Healy and Mary A. McDermott were sent to the workhouse, and Ann E Smith fined $10.

WATERING THE AVENUE.—Apprehending that the route of the troops passing in review to-morrow and next day through the city may become dusty, the two fire departments-U.S. steam fire brigade (Hibernia, Rucker and Meigs,) Chief Engineer Dickson, and the Washington city department, (Nos. 1, 2 and 3,) Chief Engineer Sessford—will commence at daylight and thoroughly water the Avenue, previous to the moving of the troops.

THE POLICE ARRANGEMENTS .- This morning the Sergeants of police received their or. ders from Superintendent Richards relative to the preservation of order during the review of the troops to-morrow and Wednesday. The policemen are receiving their summer clothing, and will make their first appearance in their new uniforms to-morrow.

DECRASE OF ANOTHER OLD CITIZEN .- Thos. Marche, Esq , died at his residence yesterday. Deceased was an active member of the Columbia Fire Company. No. 1, (one of the oldest fire organizations in the city,) and had been for over thirty years its Vice President. The Company meets this evening to make arrangements for attending his funeral.

On THURSDAY EVENING, May 25th, the New York Manufacturing Jeweler's Association give a concert at Odd Fellows' Hall, at which in addition to a fine musical entertainment, there will be distributed among those holding tickets gifts, including jewelry, silver plated

A SERIOUS CHARGE.-Charles W. Bennett, restaurant keeper, has been indicted by the grand jury and held to bail for court in the sum of $3.000 upon the charge of obtaining $2,500 from S. J. Harris under false pretenses.

THE CONCERT of the Sixth street Presbyterian Church has been postponed until Friday evening. The Washington Quintette Club will participate in the concert, and a most enjoyable musical treat is expected.
